The Church Opposes Use of Tobacco by Members.

Resolution of a California Delegate Adopted.

Committee Will Inquire Into "Modern Theology."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) DENVER, May 27.—That clergymen and laymen should use tobacco; that it is not contrary to the principles of the church for Presbyterians to grant saloon licenses and that a committee of ministers and laymen shall inquire into methods to be pursued in seminars in teaching "modern theology" were the principal resolutions approved by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church today.

The clause regarding tobacco came in the consideration of the report of the Temperance Commission. The report recommended President Taft, Emperor William and ex-President Elihu Root of Harvard University for being teetotalers and urged the ministers of the church to petition Congress to stop interstate shipments of liquor, to discontinue the issuance of internal revenue receipts in prohibition territory and to prohibit the sale of the main for the distribution of liquor advertising or liquor.

The temperance report advocates the teaching of temperance which it is proposed to achieve by memorials to Congress. In the report it was also recommended that the receipt of revenue in any form from the liquor traffic be discontinued, and that a prohibitory zone twenty-five miles in width be established around every Indian reservation. The report was read and commented on by Rev. Luther Osterman, D.D., of New York.

The report recommended one fraternal order, "hereafter noted for its convivial membership," for its action in disbanding the sale of drinking liquor about the lodge premises.

Newspapers which carry liquor advertising fell under the ban of the assembly, it being recommended that such papers be not patronized.

WAR ON "SOCIAL DRINKING."

"Social drinking" also received a set back when it was urged that the women's societies of the church make war on this evil and make it their business to fight the use of liquor in women's clubs and in the home. The last Sunday in October was set aside as "temperance day."

Rev. Elsworth L. Rich of Watsonville, Cal., introduced a resolution providing that ministers should not use tobacco. A layman, in attacking the resolution, dared Mr. Rich to include in this resolution the use of opium and morphine. Mr. Rich amended his resolution to include laymen and after more debate the resolution was adopted.

The next trouble over the temperance report arose when it was recommended that judges who are members of the church should not receive saloons even though it were their legal duty to do so. Several prominent members at once objected to the argument that a judge should not be criticized for his actions under the law.

The matter of "modern theology and courses of study to meet with modern conditions" came up in the report of the Committee on Theological Seminars. In its recommendation, the committee said that, while there was a demand for advanced teaching, it was the belief that the doctrines of the Presbyterian church are sufficient to meet modern conditions.

Criticism fell upon instructors because of their alleged failure to apply the Presbyterian doctrine to the present conditions. The outcome of the discussion was the adoption of a recommendation that a committee of ministers and four laymen make inquiry as to advanced courses of study and the advisability of introducing courses in social science.

The report of the Committee on Church Societies recommended a mutual insurance organization for the protection of the church. This was referred to the executive commission.

LOST IN FOREST.

Two Ideas Officials and Stenographer Miss Way in Darkness and Spend Night Wandering.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) MORCOW (Idaho) May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] County Attorney George W. Sumner, Deputy Sheriff C. C. Brown and Miss Edna Pickett, a stenographer, became lost in the darkness while returning here from the trial of a case at Princeton, this county, and suffered terribly from cold and hunger, being morning dawned and they recovered their bearings.

The country between here and Princeton is a dense forest. The party left Princeton late in the afternoon on horseback. When darkness fell they lost the road and soon they were floundering helplessly in the forest. After waiting vainly to find the road again they built a bonfire and settled down to wait for morning. The night was very cold and Mrs. Pickett in particular suffered severely.

When morning dawned they resumed their march, and late in the forenoon found a farmhouse where they were fed and cared for until able to continue their trip.

STEAMER FIRE FATAL.

One Dead and Four Badly Burned in Blaze on Freight Steamer Coquilum.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) VANCOUVER (B. C.) May 27.—One man is dead and four others so badly burned that they may die, as the result of a fire which occurred early this morning on board the coasting freight steamer Coquilum on her way through the Gulf of Georgia from this port.

The fire started just after daylight when Second Engineer Black, and a fireman, named unknown, were alone in the engine-room. How the fire started is not known, but suddenly the engine-room was dark and woodwork and stoves saturated with oil and very dry, burned fiercely. The fireman was rescued alive. Second Engineer Black nearly lost his life trying to rescue the fireman. Second Mate Watts was also badly injured and the burns sustained by two Japanese firemen were grave.

The crew, after a hard fight, extinguished the fire and turned the steamer back to Vancouver, where the injured were taken to hospital. The steamer lost in several thousand dollars.

THIEF KEEPS HIS WORD.

Brings Back Policemen's Outfit He Stole by Mistake in Dark.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) KANSAS CITY, May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward Turner, policeman at a penny arcade on Union avenue, who was robbed of his star and uniform last night in his room over the arcade, was called up by telephone by a man who said:

"It was dark when I stole the clothes, and I did not think that I was taking a policeman's outfit. If you don't try to catch me I will return the clothes to your room this afternoon."

The thief kept his word.

TWO COUNTIES WET, ONE DRY.

ELECTION IN SOUTHERN INDIANA HARD-FOUGHT.

Women Sing at Polls and Serve Lunches in Floyd County, But Day Is Lost-Laporte County Won by Liquor Interests, Harrison County Probably Saved.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LOUISVILLE (Ky.) May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the local option election held today in Floyd county, Indiana, the "wets" defeated the "drys," horse, foot and dragon. With a few precincts to hear from the "wets" last night were claiming a majority of about 1000.

The contest was waged warm for over two weeks, both sides putting forth every effort to win the electorate to their side. Every known device and argument were employed. The "drys" had the women at the polls all during the day, singing songs and serving lunch to the voters. The "wets" organized systematically and made the usual business arguments, their strongest plea being that all the trade of the liberal element would be driven to Louisville.

Floyd county contains New Albany, one of the largest cities in Southern Indiana, and while the "wets" did not believe the county would vote "dry," they took no chances, and made a winning fight against the "drys."

Harrison county, adjoining Floyd, had an option election today and is reported to have gone dry by a narrow margin. Laporte county also held an option election today and went "wet" by about 3000.

PLEA FOR PROHIBITION.

Louisville Business Men Listen to Arguments of Rev. M. J. Fanning of Philadelphia.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LOUISVILLE (Ky.) May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Close attention was marked respect were accorded the Rev. M. J. Fanning of Philadelphia, by 300 prominent Louisville business men today at noon when he delivered the address of the State-wide prohibition. The Rev. Mr. Fanning's speech followed the adoption of resolutions by the business men, declaring their belief that prohibition would be a detriment, but disastrous to the best interests of Kentucky.

Mr. Fanning devoted himself to a comparison between Kansas under prohibition and Kentucky under present conditions. He was interrupted by Harry Weisinger, who asked the Presbyterians to consider the advantage and the outcome of the discussion was the adoption of a recommendation that a committee of ministers and four laymen make inquiry as to advanced courses of study and the advisability of introducing courses in social science.

The report of the Committee on Church Societies recommended a mutual insurance organization for the protection of the church. This was referred to the executive commission.

JAPAN SEES PROSPERITY.

Crop Prospects Exceptionally Favorable, Money is Plentiful and Imports Increase.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) TOKYO, May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The prospects of the silk and barley crops are exceptionally favorable and signs of activity are apparent in the trade in such staples as rice, sugar, fertilizers and timbers. Money is plentiful, at low rates of interest, and imports are increasing.

The impression prevails in economic circles that light is appearing on the financial horizon and that the second half of the year will see the country emerging from its long spell of business depression and hard times.

DOWIEITES BUYING LAND.

WINNIPEG (Man.) # WOMEN FOLLOW PATTEN'S LEAD.

Find "Easy Money" in Buy of Wines in May Wheat.

Fair Sex Usually Lucky in Pit Ventures.

Profits Pay for Many Hats and Gowns.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The feminine element has entered into the scramble for "easy money" in the wheat market, and the present sensational advance in prices of grain due to the spectacular operations of James A. Patten in his so-called deal in May wheat. Hundreds of women in Chicago and near-by towns have profited by following directly the "trades" of the "wheat king," according to guarded admission of Wall-street brokers today. Many of the women have quit with much "money in the bank."

"The luck of the fair sex is proverbial," this broker said as he led the inquirer beyond the range of hearing of the room traders to a busy office in a La Salle-street skyscraper. "Also, they place blind faith in a successful plunger. You know how it is: the woman who has quit with much 'money in the bank' is not that man, either, for that matter."

"I venture to say that this faith in Patten has brought many spring gowns, paid dressmakers' bills, produced theater tickets, luncheons, furniture for the house, clothes for that matter, and many and many a rent money. Women don't as a rule, risk big money. They quit quickly when luck is against them, and they would not be 'phishers' to a man. Most of them have quit now, too, rather than risk a big slump when delivery day for May comes. Oh, they're wise."

COLONIZATION ON BIG SCALE.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT PLANS STUPENDOUS SCHEME.

Will Divide Immense Tract of Land into Forty Colonies. With House on Each. Buildings, Rail and Eventually a Port—Six Million Dollars Appropriated.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) GALVESTON (Tex.) May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The most stupendous development and colonization scheme ever attempted on the western continent is one backed by the Mexican government for settlement of two million acres of land in Mexico for Americans and Europeans. The stretch of land selected extends from El Paso on the Mexican National Railway at a point almost opposite Hidalgo, down into Mexico for a distance of 125 miles, to the San Fernando, thence to its mouth at the Laguna Madre.

The government has appropriated six million dollars for the scheme, exclusive of the cost of the land. It is to be built on the railroad, and the new townships are to be built on the property to the southern line on San Fernando River, about 125 miles and one-third the distance to Tampico from El Paso.

The government contemplates the establishment of a port at the mouth of the San Fernando River. The Association Financiers International is handling the project, and the plans call for dividing the immense tract on the west side of the Rio Grande into forty-acre tracts, to be sold to settlers on long-term contracts. A house will be built on every forty-acre plot and settlers will be expected to have their own farms and agricultural implements and anything of this character needed shall be admitted free of duty.

Antonio G. Canalis, representing the Mexican government, who is en route to New York, says that the plans for the railroad have been completed and the railroad department of the government will begin its construction within sixty days.

AGAINST AMERICAN PLAYS.

Berlin Has Had Enough of New York Imports—Influence Considered Balaful.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BERLIN, May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Something like a revolt against the importation of American plays has broken out in Berlin. The critics feel called upon to defend the German stage against what is considered the baleful influence of the American playwright.

The last season has witnessed the production of a number of works imported from New York, and the latest cause of grievance is the first production of "Brewster's Millions," it is a dramatic form of the novel by George Barr McCutcheon. Although the large audience applauded the piece vigorously enough, the critical fraternity lambasted the frequency of American productions and expresses the fervent hope that it will stop before German theatrical ideals suffer from the contamination.

The Morgenpost says: "Let the Americans extend the Monroe Doctrine to things artistic. In this respect we will join joyfully in the cry, 'America for the Americans!'"

WIRELESS CALLS AMBULANCE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) RACINE (Wis.) May 27.—Wireless telegraph on the Goodrich steamer, City of Racine, was brought into use yesterday and at least prolonged the life of a young attorney. The ship cleared from Chicago Tuesday night. One of the passengers was R. J. Goodman of Chicago. Half way between Chicago and this port he was taken dangerously ill. The wireless service was set to work and Chicago was reached. Instructions were given to give word to Racine and order an ambulance and physician to be at the landing when the boat arrived. This was done and the sick man hurried to the hospital. He is suffering with peritonitis. There is no hope of recovery.

CHICAGO COPS MUST WORK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) CHICAGO, May 27.—Mayor DuSane has given his indorsement of the plan of Chief of Police Shipley to have more patrolmen travel post-work for which the city is paid. The Chief in his annual report for 1909 shows that 125 of the 3500 patrolmen are traveling posts. The others have soft berths. Altogether the Chief estimated that $450,000 of his appropriation is wasted so far as giving the public protection is concerned.

HUMAN BOOZE BARRELS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) CHICAGO, May 27.—"Husbands in the form of human whiskey barrels should be cast adrift by their suffering wives," said Municipal Judge Otten to a woman whose husband had been drinking heavily since the death of his wife. When a wife has a husband who drinks heavily she should cast him aside and buy a whiskey barrel," said the court. "These cost but less than the human barrel, and are nearly so much about the house as a human whiskey barrel."

VAUDEVILLIANS' DEMANDS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) CHICAGO, May 27.—Vaudeville actors who perform in five-cent theaters have decided to "limit their output." Four performances a day and eight on Saturdays and Sundays have been set as the limit. Additional performances must be paid for as overtime up to twelve a day, beyond which the actors say they will not go. Chicago favoring the new proposition were reported at a meeting of the actors' union. Many of the actors complained that they were required to work more than twelve times a day, and that they were unable to stand the pace.

BAKER ADMITS BIGAMY CHARGE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) HONOLULU, May 27.—F. W. Baker, who was arrested here last Monday on charges of bigamy, admitted instructions from the United States Marshal at Chicago, confessed his guilt today. His latest wife, however, whom he married here on May 12, and whose name at the time was Mrs. Eva B. Wallace, remains steadfast, declaring that her husband in Baker is unshaken by his arrest.

A romance of the tropical seas underlies the marriage of Baker, who is believed to be the son of Charles W. Baker, secretary of the Hawaiian Islands. Baker arrived in Honolulu from San Francisco about May 1 on the steamship Alameda. One of his fellow-travelers on the Alameda was Mrs. Wallace, a San Francisco woman, en route to Honolulu to marry Charles Howard, a former San Francisco resident in the Hawaiian Islands.

It appears that the moonlight nights in the Hawaiian Islands, and the proximity of Baker, proved too much for Mrs. Wallace's constancy to Howard. Baker, having learned of this, dropped himself minus his expected bride, Mrs. Wallace, having learned of this, dropped her title on her marriage to Mr. Hatch. The baroness is a warm friend of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland.

FIRM AGAINST JAP STRIKERS.

HONOLULU, May 27.—No concessions in the higher pay will be made to the striking Japanese sugar plantation laborers, according to a resolution adopted by the Planters' Association today. The meeting was attended by thirty-one plantation managers from all parts of the Hawaiian group.

SHIPPERS' FOREBODINGS.

Year the Hill-Harriman Pact May Stop Building.

Districts Hoping for New Lines Worried.

Division of Traffic Is Expected by Some.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is feared by the shippers of Oregon generally, as well as by the interests seeking the opening up of remote sections of the state, that the Hill-Harriman pact which has just been concluded, bodes no good. The first direct effect of the agreement has been the announcement that the Harriman project of a tunnel from Portland to Puget Sound is abandoned.

Harriman's Tacoma tunnel, giving an easy grade entrance into Tacoma from the north, which the construction has practically in course of completion, will still be used, as well as the tunnel—but by the Hill line instead of Harriman. The construction of eight miles from Centralia will probably be put to completion, and the road will be used as originally intended, to convey coal to the trucks now owned by the joint venture. The road was completed in the spring of 1904, but progress has been intermittent.

Another immediate effect of the agreement is to postpone indefinitely, if not to nullify, the prospect of the merger of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul to Portland. Negotiations have been undertaken looking to bringing Milwaukee trains into Portland from over the proposed Harriman line. Now the only hope of the Milwaukee's entrance here is that it may find its own tracks at some distant date.

CHECKS COMPETITION. Experience in Oregon has been that Mr. Harriman will only extend his lines to remote districts when competition is lacking. Then he steps in and acquires the competing road or starts one of his own. The Columbia Railroad, owned by the Oregonian, was built by private capital after vain effort had been made to get Mr. Harriman to build it. He built it, Mr. Harriman straightway bought it. Exactly the same thing happened in the case of the Tillamook Road. It was made for years to get Harriman to build it, but he failed. When Mr. Harriman got the road under way, he bought it.

When Mr. Harriman surveyed down the coast's north, he saw the Seattle and Portland line Harriman sent rival routes into the field and made every effort to do up the only available route, but in that case he failed and the line was completed.

SHIPPERS HAVE FEARS. It is feared by the shipping public that under the Hill-Harriman agreement Oregon is to see a repetition of what followed the forming of the Puget Sound Pacific combine in California. That the tendency will be to leave the territory of the transcontinental lines divided and apportioned to each seems to be the opinion of the shipping public generally.

Mr. Cotton, chief counsel for the shipping lines, will leave for New York tomorrow to confer with Mr. Harriman and the other members of the Hill-Harriman pact. Mr. Cotton said this morning that he had no opinion to express regarding the general results of the agreement, excepting that it would benefit the Northwest. He said it should not be taken as a step towards the frequently expressed hope of E. H. Harriman—the formation of a gigantic railroad combination whereby all the lines of the country would be united under one management at least operated without competition.

Supreme Court Decision Sustains Several Contentions Regarding Children and Dr. Sagan.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] PARIS, May 27.—The decision of the Supreme Court of Count Boni de Castellane's appeal of the case brought by him for the custody of his children, handed down today, and is a partial victory for the Count. It confirmed the decision of the lower court, giving the mother the custody of the children, but it set forth that the father alone had the right to appoint his instructor and designate the college in which they were to be educated.

Furthermore, Prince Helle de Sagan is specifically excluded from the list of persons authorized to visit the children. The Count's appeal is permitted in that, in effect, sustained. The mother's appeal was dismissed. The Count's appeal was dismissed.

RENO, May 27.—Under the leadership of Superintendent Creel of the Pyramid Lake Indian Reservation, and R. H. Cowles, a ranchman of Washoe county, the biggest wild horse hunt ever attempted in Nevada will be started tomorrow in the Limbo country, north of Washoe. Five hundred buckaroos from surrounding ranches will participate.

Fifty square miles of territory will be encircled by mounted men, who will drive toward a central point near the northern end of the Nightingale Mountains, where an immense corral has been erected.

The older horses will be shot, while the younger ones will be broken for saddle purposes.

SENTENCED FOR WIFE-MURDER.

Chinaman Who Killed Wife Given Twenty Years in Washington Penitentiary.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] BELLINGHAM (Wash.) May 27.—Le Wing Wah of Oakland, Cal., convicted of murdering his wife in the detention sheds at Sumas last August, was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary today. The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the conviction and the sentence followed today.

Wah, who was a member of a firm of Chinese merchants at Oakland, was returning from a visit to China with his wife when he was detained at Sumas to ascertain if the woman was legally married to Wah, and entitled to enter the country. A detention of three days at the shed one morning and the body of the woman fell through the door at his feet, the throat cut from ear to ear. Wah was upstairs asleep.

He claimed that she wished to kill herself and he helped her to do it, carrying the body downstairs and returning to his bed.

HOLD-UP MEN SENTENCED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] VANCOUVER, May 27.—Clive and Bill Newman, hold-up men, were sentenced last night at Greenwood, B. C., to twenty years in the penitentiary, having held up and robbed the Great Northern Railway agent at Brudenell, B. C., last December. The men committed the crime in the company of Hart, who turned King's evidence and was allowed his liberty. Hart confessed when arrested and the Newmans were extradited from Washington.

Hart's evidence was corroborated by a woman who made the masks the men used in the robbery. They secured less than $100.

SUICIDE AFTER PRAYER-MEETING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] TILLAMOOK (Or.) May 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After a quarrel with her sweetheart, while returning from prayer meeting last night, Lillie Bays, 16 years old, committed suicide by drinking carbolide acid.

The parents say Lillie attended prayer meetings with her sister and two young men. On the way home she quarreled with the youth with whom she was reported to have been intimate. A few minutes later she ran on ahead, telling the others she must attend to her mother's car.

ARRESTED AS EMBEZZLER. TOOK HORSES AND MULES. [ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] PHOENIX (Ariz.) May 27.—Harry Porter, known in Hereford, Cal., as Frank China, was arrested here last night from here, while helping to drive in cattle from the Sunflower range, on complaint of Tommy Rawson, a former employer, owner of the Crown Valley ranch in Riverside county, charged with him with embezzlement of two mules and two horses. Porter served three terms in the Yuma penitentiary, and was later employed under an assumed name by Rawson. Three months ago he left Hemet with the animals under agreement to buy horses for Rawson. He crossed the desert to Goff, where he sold the horses and came on to Phoenix with J. W. Porter, a boy in his teens, who accompanied him from Crown ranch and did not discover the character of Porter until the latter deserted him in Phoenix. Porter reported to Rawson, who came here a month ago, and set the law in motion for the capture of Porter.

VENGEANCE VOW FULFILLED. MEXICAN OFFICER SLAYS. [ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] PUEBLO (Mex.) May 27.—Carrying out a vow made several years ago, Lieut. Braulo Gutierrez shot Alberto Reyes last night while the wife and children of the victim of thirty-four years in the army seven years ago and quarreled one day just as Reyes was being discharged. Gutierrez swore he would kill Reyes and, although he rose in rank and gained a commission, he did not forget his oath of vengeance.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Stiff Sentence for Mail Box Robber. SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—D. O. Mills, alias Fisher, convicted of robbing mail boxes by the use of duplicate keys, was sentenced today by United District Judge De Haven to thirty-four years in the penitentiary. When arrested he had in his possession duplicate keys to mail boxes in this city, Oakland and Los Angeles.

HALLUCINATORY DELIRIUM. J. R. Yeach, aged 25 years, who has been held at the County Jail for some time awaiting trial on a charge of forgery, was removed to the County Hospital and placed in a cell in the ward for insane yesterday for observation as to his sanity. While in the jail Yeach had a delirium that seemed one was going to blow up the institution with dynamite and kill him and all the other inmates in order to determine whether the man is really insane or only shamming the District attorney decided to place him under observation by alienists.

AID FOR ARMENIANS. WORCESTER (Mass.) May 27.—The support of sixty children made orphans by the recent massacres in the Adana district has been assumed by the National Armenian and Indian Relief Association, the secretary and treasurer, Miss Emily C. Wheeler of this city, having sent a cablegram to this effect to the Rev. W. W. Peet, at Constantinople.

TO WOMEN WHO SUFFER

This Young Lady Speaks from the Experience of One Who Has Been Made Well.

It has been said that seven-tenths of the women of this country suffer from their peculiar trouble, endure distress that make the lives of many of them miserable and almost unendurable. To such sufferers it will be a blessing to know that there is a remedy exactly suited to their ills, a blood-making tonic that will restore the functions of their regular activity without which there can be no permanent good health.

If there is any interruption of the law of nature symptoms will result such as severe headache, loss of appetite, pale or sallow complexion, palpitation of the heart, swollen ankles or legs, nervousness, offensive breath, etc., etc. The sufferer will exhibit one or more of these symptoms, or may have all. They simply indicate the ravages disease has made upon the system, and the more of these symptoms the patient shows the greater the necessity for prompt and persistent treatment, until they have been banished and health is restored.

Miss Ellen Mattia of No. 252 West Fifth, South street, Salt Lake City, Utah, relates her experience gladly in the hope that others will be helped by it. She says:

"I was thin down, was thin and bloodless and had no color whatever. Two doctors treated me but did not help me at all. I felt some improvement from the first box and I continued to use them, my strength and weight increased and my color returned. I became real healthy again and I shall always speak highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are adapted for diseases due to impure blood and shattered nerves. They are invaluable in anemia, rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fever, and sick headaches, dizziness, nervousness, neuritis and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

A valuable booklet entitled "Plain Talks to Women" will be sent free, in a sealed envelope, upon request, to any woman interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. The genuine are sold only under the name of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

A Lazy Liver

makes life a burden, as thousands of suffering men and women know. Food does little good. There is no energy for business or pleasure. Headache, sleeplessness, yellow skin, coated tongue indicate that the liver is not doing its work and the bile is not being carried off.

Warner's Safe Cure

which is purely a vegetable compound, is an absolutely safe and permanent cure for all inflammatory and other diseases of the liver. It corrects the functional trouble by increasing the flow of bile into the bowels to a healthy standard and keeping it so. It aids in removing the waste material that obstructs the circulation of the liver, and by its tonic and purifying properties brings to a condition of perfect harmony all the organs of the body.

Constipation and Biliousness.

WARNER'S SAFE PILLS, sugar-coated, absolutely free from injurious substances, a perfect laxative, will cure indigestion, biliousness, Torpid Liver and Constipation. Do not gripe.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE is put up in two sizes, and is sold by all druggists at 50 cents and $1.00 a BOTTLE. Refuse substitutes containing harmful drugs which injure the system.

Sample Bottle Free. Sample bottle of WARNER'S SAFE CURE will be sent postpaid to any one who will write WARNER'S SAFE CURE CO., ROCHESTER, N. Y., and mention having seen this liberal offer in the Times.

MARTIN STRANGELY RETICENT ABOUT ACCIDENT.

British Are Silent About Circumstances Concerning Throwing of American Horse and There Seems Little Chance of King Permitting Match Race to Occur.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THIS TIMES.)
LONDON, May 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Louis Winans could offer to match Sir Martin against a Minor, to settle the undecided question of their respective superiority, as has been suggested, but it is exceedingly unlikely that the King would permit.

Winans has many engagements for the season, which, it is claimed, will take all the time the King's colt has for preparation. Unfortunately they are not at present entered in any other race together, Sir Martin's only other engagement being in the Ascot Gold Cup, in which Winans does not run.

The accident by which Sir Martin's assistant chance of winning the Derby was spoiled, is seriously described, and Sir Martin, who ought to be able to throw more light on it than anybody, is somewhat reticent on the subject.

An experienced English racing man, who was near by when Sir Martin's mishap occurred, says the horse, when jumping the Tattenham corner, wasumped from behind by another horse, throwing Sir Martin onto the head of the horse in front.

It was the same place Cropper's Rhodora met with the accident that derided her of the Oaks, and that Derby favorite, suffered a broken leg.

TRADES POSSIBLE.
Henry Berry of the Los Angeles team and Bill Reidy of Oakland came very close to a trade of ball players yesterday, but after a lot of sparring both backed up to get a fresh start tomorrow. Reidy is very anxious to get Deal and offered Berry either Nelson or Wiggs for the big right hander, but after Reidy had declared that a pitcher like Nelson would be worth $5000 next winter with a winning team, as Los Angeles has, Berry came back with the statement that he would not trade Deal for the entire Oakland team.

They did finally agree to trade Thompson for Van Halren, but in the end they called this trade off. Berry offered Thompson and Thorsen for Wiggs or Nelson, but Reidy would not listen to this, for he says he has pitcher to burn.

During the talk Reidy let out the information that he is negotiating with modern teams for an outside and an inside three weeks, when his team is ready, he will show the other teams more ball playing.

NEW BOWLING RECORD SET.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
NEW YORK, May 22.—The National Bowling Association record for five-men teams was broken at the Madison Square Garden Tournament tonight by a team from the Corinthian Bowling Club of this city, which rolled a total of 286, an average of 57.2 a game. Some People Mistake "Freakishness" for "Style"
Some Think That "Foppishness" is "Exclusiveness"

Alfred Benjamin Suits

The Aristocracy of Clothingdom—Pre-eminence Unquestioned

A ridiculously cut jacket attracts attention—so does any freak. A small class are misled into thinking that "freaks" are "fashion." A $20-per-week tailor invents the "freaks." Alfred Benjamin & Co. pay $25,000 per year to one man to interpret fashion.

People sometimes turn on the sidewalk to watch an Alfred Benjamin suit, not because it is "freaky," but because its incomparable style, character, elegance and perfect taste make it appear magnificent among the "freaks" and the ordinary humdrum clothing.

These prices have stagnated the tailor trade—$18, $20, $22, $25 and up.

Frocks for Formal and Semi-Formal Wear

"Our appearance as we pass by is the whole of our message to most of the world." A gown or two of the sort described below will add wonderfully to your wardrobe, and to your appearance at the round of luncheon, dinner, bridge, that women know as the "simple life."

It takes plenty of changes of garment to keep up with it all.

Such dresses, at such prices as these, with alterations made without charge, should be a great help:

Thirty-two Hundred Acres Near Redlands to Be Devoted to Growing of Trees.

The Standard Timber Land Company, recently organized in this city, has purchased for the reported price of $100,000, a tract of land near Redlands, comprising some 3200 acres. The company contemplates the expenditure of a considerable sum in the improvement of this land; system of thorough irrigation is to be installed, whereby it is expected that the time necessary for the maturing of the trees will be greatly reduced. Following the setting out of the tract it is to be subdivided into smaller lots and placed on the market.

The Standard Company organizing under a capitalization of $100,000, will open offices in this city under the direction of L. F. Curtis of Los Angeles, president and general manager. Offices are also to be established in San Francisco, in charge of E. F. Rager of that city.

HUNTING AHEAD OF ROOSEVELT IN EAST AFRICA

The Capture of Leopards and Smaller Game

By Captain Fitz Duquesne

Capt. Fitz Duquesne was born of Boer parents in South Africa, educated in Europe (where he won considerable distinction as a swordsman), and has been a professional hunter of big game most of his life. At the age of 17 he was a veteran of the Kaffir wars. He served in the Boer war and also in the Congo. In the recent events of South Africa's kaleidoscopic history Capt. Duquesne took a conspicuous part. He acted in many capacities during the hostilities between the Boers and the British, being in turn spy, military detective, engineer, censor, dispatch-carrier and propagandist. He was wounded twice in the fighting around Colenso. When the British succeeded in cutting cable communication between the Boer republic and the rest of the world, Duquesne carried the news of the Boer victories over the Mozambique border, and from there he wrote his dispatches to the Petit Bleu, the official European organ of the Boer government. He was once captured by the Portuguese and thrown into prison at Lorenzo Marques. Later he was taken as a prisoner to Europe at the request of the British government. When the ship that conveyed him and his guard touched at Naples he was suffering from a fever and in consequence was placed in an Italian hospital. On his recovery he was allowed to go free. He went to Brussels and was sent back to the front by Dr. Leyds, with plans for the seizure of Cape Town by the Boer commanders then mobilized in Cape Colony. Everything was ready for the taking of the city when, a traitor having revealed the plot, Duquesne and a number of others were captured in Cape Town inside the British defenses. This was the climax of what has come to be known as the "Cape Town Plot." Some of the prisoners were sentenced to death who later had their sentences changed to life imprisonment. Capt. Duquesne was among the latter. Ten months later he escaped from the Brixton prison, got aboard the American yacht at Margate of New York while she was coaling at the dock, and was conveyed to Baltimore. Back to Europe he went again, as our correspondent and military writer on the Petit Bleu; thence to Africa, where he took a commission on the Congo. In East Africa he hunted big game for sport and profit, and finally he came to New York to do newspaper and magazine work.

JUST as one can tell when a rhinoceros is near by observing the little rhinoceros birds that follow it to feed on its lice, so it is easy to tell the vicinity of large carnivores by the vultures that hover about waiting to pick the bones of prey.

One day, just as the blue haze of evening was lifting from the forest, a flock of vultures sailing in the air and swooping from time to time, knew there was dead meat somewhere near. I started out in search of a quarter of an hour, right under the vultures were circling, I heard the crunching of bones in a up of rocks half hidden in the grass. There was that unmistakable sound of some large animal being torn to pieces. After crawling for some time I came across a wide trail of crushed, blood-stained grass, showing that some large animal must have been dragged. No antelope or lion could drag a body big enough to make such a large trail.

Cautionally approaching the rocks, I saw the animal's satisfied growl. I saw the ravens, vultures, black-backed and hungry-geese, perched on points of vantage, awaiting their share to swoop down. I had to be careful, for, if the vultures gave the signal, all chance of getting game would be lost. After crawling a few yards farther, I got a peep over the rocks. Lying down with my cub snuggled, was a beautiful lioness chewing at the rump of an antelope. It was a beautiful sight. I hated to shoot, but I was hungry and there was nothing else for it. Although I could see the lioness in a general way, it was a particularly hard shot, as there were by then bushes and stones in my way.

The vultures were getting uneasy. I yelped, and they all rose with a heavy spring of wings. The lioness, startled, sprang to the top of the rocks, the cub following. It was no use, that I fired without taking aim. I missed the mother, but wounded the cub. The other cub made off into the bush, the lioness following.

There was a bad temper through disappointment and drew my knife to the throat of the wounded cub, which was whimpering in pain. As I put hand down to make the thrust, it met me with its little hot tongue in a pleading look filled its soft eye. It was too much like killing a boy.

I slipped my knife back into its sheath. It was a harmless little, fluffy, kitten, and I picked it up and patted it. I was carrying it back to the camp when I heard a noise behind me. I looked back and saw the other cub slip into the undergrowth. I saw then that there was going to be a fight. Two or three times around the camp that day the yellow form of a lioness was seen sitting across the exposed places in the bush.

I washed the cub's wound and put a healing preparation from my medicine chest on it. That night I saw the sentries warning of possible danger and took my little captive into the tent and tied it to my stretcher. I vowed off to sleep watching the slow of the sentry on the tent as passed between it and the fire.

Suddenly a jerk at my stretcher woke me. Instinctively placing my hand on my Lager pistol, I opened my eyes expecting, if anything, to see the lion. My heart almost stopped. To me meant destruction, for there, on the legs, with an angry snarl and a paw raised to strike, was the lioness in the half light that the dying fire threw through the flaps of the tent.

My brain was of no use to me, for I ceased to think. In silent fear I was paralyzed. I lay. The lioness snarled its cub and gave a tug. The cub held it snarled, overturning my stretcher. She turned and snarled through the door carrying her precious offspring. A shot shattered the silence of the night. I sprang my feet and saw the guard stand over the quivering form of the faithful lioness still holding her beloved cub in her mouth. She was dead.

It seemed a pity to kill this motherly beast, but it was too late to be sorry. How she ever passed the guard baffles me. A few days afterward, while one of the shikarees (native hunters) was stalking antelope for food, he came across a weak little cub that was evidently dying of starvation. He brought it to the camp. It was so like the one I had wounded that I have no doubt that it was the other cub of the lioness the guard shot. We raised the cub "on the bottle." For a year they were the pets of the camp, playing and romping like kittens and following us in our marches across the country.

The Cubs and "Forget."

But all good things come to an end, and so did the cubs. One day we were resting in the shade of a forest, avoiding the heat of noon and most of the natives were asleep. It stood around and looked on, as we had often done at feeding time. As soon as the lion's tail was tucked it turned on its tormentor with a roar and struck him down with its paw. "Forget" jumped up, drew his knife, and thrust it into the animal's back, killing it instantly. The poor native's foot was indeed badly chewed.

"Forget," I said, after his foot had been dressed, "you were a friend of the young lion's. Why did you kill it?"

"Baaa," he answered, "it is too much to expect me to continue the friendship by feeding the lion with my own foot."

I found out later that "Forget," living up to his reputation, had forgotten to feed the cubs, and, one getting very hungry, and no doubt thinking it made no difference, started to eat its foster father's foot while he was asleep. The other cub got very quarrelsome after it lost its brother. I sold it to an agent of the Antwerp Zoological garden, where it is I believe to this day.

The Leopard, Craftiest Beast in the Jungle.

From the lion the thoughts of the hunter turn naturally to the most crafty of African animals, the leopard—the tiger of the Boers.

It is the least hunted animal in Africa, not because it is not sought, but because it is hard to get at, its home being in the woody, mountainous country. Then, too, it has as a protective feature its peculiarly marked skin, the spots of which resemble the light and shade in the leaves, making the beast very difficult to see. Many hunters would face anything sooner than a leopard, on account of its intelligent ferocity. Some are of the opinion that it is the most dangerous of African game, and those who know say it is fiercer than the South American jaguar.

The leopard is the brainiest of the carnivores. The stories told by the natives and hunters of its cleverness would fill volumes. One thing is certain, it gets its food easier than any other animal. The methods are simple in the extreme. It ascends a tree beside a waterhole and waits for its victim to come to drink, and then, flying like a thunderbolt from the treetop, strikes down its prey with a blow, at the same time sinking its teeth into a vital spot.

On one occasion I had the good fortune to witness a scene, in which a leopard was the chief actor, that left an indelible picture in the gallery of my memory.

I was hunting one day, with a shikaree, for food. We were unsuccessful in getting a shot on the veld and so decided to wait at a veld (waterhole) till the game came to drink. It was a beautifully calm day, with not the slightest movement in the air. We made a bed of leaves in a sheltering nook and prepared for action. The smoothness of the deep blue water before us was broken only by the water that they had stepped out of a book of fairy tales, mingling in perfect friendship. There was not a quarrel among them. The big-eyed, aristocratic-looking pookas rubbed horns with the stately leopards as they put their clean, glistening noses into the cool, inviting water. I was lost in admiration. I hated to disturb the beautiful scene by a shot.

All at once, like an arrow from the tree above shot, the form of a leopard out of the back of a buffalo calf. In a flash there was a wild stampede. All ran but the buffalo cow, the mother of the calf. When the calf was struck it fell either dead or unconscious, and the snarling leopard stood over its prey for a second. Then the cow charged and hurled the marauder from her prostrate young. A fight commenced in earnest.

The leopard sprang to its feet and in an instant was on the back of the cow. With the agility of a wrestler Africa under peculiar circumstances. As no one saw the happening it is hard to say how it exactly occurred. We were hunting for specimens for a German museum. When we reached a suitable hunting grounds we camped and set out daily in different directions in small parties, a German scientist accompanying each. One morning a shikaree came in with the news that the veld a little way to the north was covered with game. The hunters with their rifles and the scientists with their notebooks and cameras, set out, making a wide detour. We divided into parties, a shikaree at the head of each, with the exception of those two which van Reenan and myself commanded. We soon reached the game. There seemed to be thousands of every variety on the veld. Huge eland, beautifully striped zebras, hartebeest, impala, koodoo, gemsbok, springbok, in fact there seemed to be a congress of all the antelope in Africa.

On the outskirts near a clump of trees a number of giraffe towered above the rest of the animals. Van Reenan set out in their direction and the rest of us waited till the other men started shooting on the opposite side of the veld, thus driving the herds in our direction.

After a long, tiring wait of four hours, the cracking of rifles in the distance brought us to attention and we rushed at the work of death had commenced. Every head on the veld was raised; every animal, for a second, was still and silent as a statue. Then, with one accord, they turned and came galloping toward us, the ground trembling under the thunder of their hoofs.

With the magazines of our rifles full we waited till the animals came into good range and then opened fire. The din was frightful, the thunder of the hoofs, the swirling dust, the rhythmic bang of the many rifles, and the whistling of stray bullets made a veritable battle scene. One after another we picked out our living targets and down they went, the stampeding mass of life behind falling over them in a struggling confusion.

At last the tall end of the herds galloped past, leaving a few wounded animals enveloped in the dust of the battle. We gave our burning rifles a rest, wiped the grime from our faces and surveyed the results of our bloody attack.

The Cheetah and Van Reenan.

The veld was spotted with carcasses, and here and there an animal struggled in pain from a cruel, disabling wound. The hundreds of natives with the expedition poured over the veld and commenced skinning. The scientists took measurements and photographs, and by night the hides were all in camp.

When the bugle blew at meal time van Reenan was missing. I questioned the natives, but none had any news of him. We lit huge fires to guide him to the camp. There was no possibility of his being lost, for he was a Boer and knew the veld like a Kaffir. All night we expected him to turn up at the camp. The lions and leopards roared, the hyenas laughed, jackals snarled and a thousand dismal howls made night fiendish, as the animals fought over the carcasses left after our hunt.

Daylight broke on a disappointed camp and at once searching parties were formed to find the missing hunter. I made for the spot where I had seen the giraffe before the hunt, knowing that van Reenan had gone in that direction to get a shot at them. After getting to the place and searching a little I discovered the body of my friend with a dead cheetah across it. Of course, I can only guess what happened.

I examined his rifle and found only one cartridge expended from the magazine. There was a wound in the cheetah's breast. The animal had been wounded at close quarters evidently, and had sprung on its aggressor before he could get in another shot.

Poor van Reenan was frightfully chased. The cheetah had died in the act of killing him, one of the many dramatic tragedies that illustrate the dangers of hunting on the Dark Continent.

The Giraffe—Awkward and Harmless.

It is peculiar that such savage brutes as leopards and cheetahs are marked much like the giraffe, the most awkward and harmless animal in Africa. At one time the giraffe was common down as far as Cape Town, but now it is found no farther south than the Transvaal. Gradually it is being driven into the interior. Giraffe makes its home in the desert country, being able to go long periods without drinking. There are large herds on the Kalahari desert, where they are practically safe from the hunter's rifle. Giraffes are also very common in the country which Mr. Roosevelt is going. They are easy hunting. Before the passage of the game protection laws I have seen one party bring down 30 giraffes in a day.

It is easy to form an idea of the giraffe's awkwardness when you take into consideration that the animal is from 18 to 20 feet high, measuring from the ground to its head, and it is mostly legs and neck, the legs being longer than the neck. When a giraffe drinks it must spread its legs out at an angle of about 90 degrees to lower its body sufficiently to reach the water.

The favorite method of the Boers in hunting the giraffe is to ride it down on horseback. This affords great sport and a good horse will overtake one of these animals after a long chase. The giraffe presents a peculiar spectacle when it is running. The body seems to gain on the head, which waves to and fro and is jerked into position at every second step. Mr. Roosevelt will have to depend solely on shooting for his giraffe sport, as the country he will visit is not favorable to horse hunting.

A source of amusement to the average European sportsman who visits East Africa is hunting the wart hog. Although the Africaner does not care about hunting this animal, the European seems to delight in it, perhaps on account of the animal's ferocious and ugly appearance. It is armed with a pair of formidable tusks which it can use with great effect on either horse or man when it is cornered. I have seen a native gored so badly by one that he died in an hour.

Each African colony has game laws based on the prevalence or scarcity of certain species of animals. Where Mr. Roosevelt is going to hunt it costs $250 for a hunter's license. This license under the British East African game laws gives the following privileges:

Each white man—rifle hunter—shall hunt in East Africa. Is allowed to kill two of each of the following animals: Elephants (tusks weighing not less than 60 pounds), rhinoceri, hippopotami, zebras, oryx, kudu, oryx, kudu, kudu, topi, Neumann's hartebeest, colobus and other fur monkeys, antelope and egret. One of each of the following: Buffalo, eland, sable, antelope, roan antelope and bongo. Ten of each of the following: Topi, Grant's gazelle, Thompson's gazelle, Jackson's hartebeest, impala, reedbuck, duiker, hippopotamus, steinbok, waterbuck, wildebeest, Coke's hartebeest, bushbuck, pan, lesser kudu, and the serval.

One of the most unique features of the search yesterday was the work of a young dentist. It had been reported that from the teeth marks in the body of the animal the murderer was the son of one of his front teeth. The young dentist approached various mortuaries in the vicinity and secured them half to death by demanding that they sink their teeth into a wax tooth he carried. He then carefully examined this cast to see the fatal bite that appeared.

Officers are endeavoring to locate a lioness who has sold tamarins in the neighborhood of Tropico and Grifone for some time. The tamarins were the ones that had been found in the case. It is hoped that the old vendor will be able to describe those to whom he sold tamarins on the afternoon of the murder.

This information may possibly bring forth the description of the man who gave Anna Poltera the tamarins for the murder.

The report that a man had been seen entering a cave back in the hills, some distance from where the remains of the animal were found, created a small sensation. This report was spread last Wednesday evening and a number of eager searchers spent the night hunting for the cave. While parties were wandering from one cañon to another the news was heard from some point in the distance that a general search for the sluths had been set to in the cañons.

A search for the place of the first lioness or three small ravens were visited the one with the man in it was no found.

FAILS TO FIND BIRTH.

Ben T. Elliott, who was arrested at Redondo Beach two days ago on suspicion of being implicated in the killing of Anna Poltera, did not find a robbery of two or three grocery stores in the neighborhood of Tropico and Grifone was taken to the scene of the murder yesterday morning. Deputy Sheriff Wright, Elliott had stated that he would be able to show the officers where he had thrown a dead shirt he had worn while carrying the body of the murdered girl. It was thought that the blood-spattered shirt found in the cañon might have belonged to Elliott. The young man, however, led the officers in another direction. He did not find the shirt he was looking for. The officers in the field was taken to the home of C. A. Beardsley in Tropico. Elliott had boarded there and Mrs. Beardsley would have recognized the shirt. Elliott had even owned it. She stated positively that it was not his shirt.

THE FIGHT COMMENCED IN EARNEST.

happened that the cubs were put in charge of the most useless native in the camp as his sole care. On account of this native's unhappy faculty of forgetting, I christened him "Forget."

Well, "Forget" had fed the cubs since the day they were captured and they followed him as though he were their mother. This day there was the silence of fatigue over the resting caravan.

Suddenly a howl of pain rent the stillness and we rushed with ready rifles to the spot whence it came. What a sight met our eyes! There was "Forget" holding on to a bush with both his hands while one of the young lions had hold of his foot pulling as hard as he could in the opposite direction. Although blood was streaming from the lion's jaws, all of us laughed. Things went from bad to worse, when a particular friend of "Forget's" got hold of the lion's tail and helped things by pulling it. Up to this time the young lion was only eating "Forget's" foot in a friendly way and seemed to enjoy the fact that we all ter heard as they leaped after the silver dragon flies. Big, heavy-winged, brilliant-hued butterflies flew erratically about, and a long-legged crane opposite us arranged its plumage as it admired its graceful lines in the reflecting pool.

A Grand Sight at a Waterhole.

It was a long wait and I was almost asleep, half dreaming, when the gentle touch of the shikaree brought me back to business. He pointed across the veld. There was a slight noise. A second or two later the broad horns of a buffalo bull showed through the leaves, and then came a cow with a calf. They came to the water and drank. I did not shoot, as I wanted one of the smaller antelope. A little later, as though by signal, eland, waterbuck, koodoo, duiker, wildebeest, blue wildebeest, reedbuck, impala, blesbok, oryx, giraffe, and dozens of other animals the numerous to mention came down to the veld.

It was a grand scene; all these graceful animals, as beautiful as she fell and rolled over her aggressor, arising to her feet again in a flash. Before the leopard could spring she rushed at him with a bellow like a fog horn, struck him full on and tossed him into the water. In a moment the leopard was on the bank again. It sprang at the cow's throat but missed as she dodged aside. Again the leopard sprang. The cow fell back, lifted her head and caught it full under the neck. The leopard roared, his horns penetrating the leopard's body. The leopard roared with pain as it fell to the ground, bleeding freely from its double wound, and the cow was covered with gasps from its antagonist's claws.

The leopard sprang again on the back of the cow, but she easily shook him off. He stood for a moment and then tried to stagger away. The buffalo made a rush, and, hurling him to the ground, thrust her horns again into his helpless body. He offered no resistance, but rolled over on his side and died.

Four Arrests Mark Work of Officers Yesterday.

Four arrests and the thrashing of an innumerable crowd marked the work of officers throughout Southern California yesterday in their effort to clear up the mystery of the murder of Anna Poltera.

A photo working on a street corner near Hollywood was arrested yesterday afternoon on suspicion of giving the name of José Valdes, a man held a prisoner at the County Jail until his actions during the past two weeks can be investigated.

Valdes answers to a certain extent the description of the man who was near the little girl a short time before her death. Another Mexican was arrested on the same suspicion at Lancaster. He was brought to Los Angeles last night and he also is being investigated.

An arrest near the scene of the murder which proved to be of no consequence and the detention of a check suspect at San Diego, while amounting to anything so far as suits are concerned, tended to show that the reward for the capture of the Southern California sluths is alert in straining every effort to solve the mystery. Captures of the band were made yesterday afternoon, the first appearance of any day during the search. Amateur detectives, men and women, were seen everywhere, and officers. They arrived in droves. One little woman with a bright and cheerful expression, wearing a light blue reward was conducting a mystery search of her own. She was followed by a man in a dark suit, who was an amateur sleuth who tracked on the spot yesterday presented the first appearance of any day during the search. The woman sleuth pried open the windows of tumble-down shanties and crawled through broken corners. After wandering about the city for three days, Ida McNeill, 10 years of age, a pupil of the San Pedro street school, was found by a patrolman at East Ninth street and the river, yesterday afternoon.

The little girl lives with her mother, Mrs. Flora McNeill, of No. 848 East Twenty-third street. She started for school Tuesday morning, but did not reach her destination. It was feared that the little girl had been kidnapped. A search was organized.

It was brought to a sudden stop by the discovery of the little girl near the river bed yesterday afternoon. She was returned to her home.

Reception Tonight at First Church. Is to Address Students This Morning—Aged Physician Makes Gift to Church—Union Avenue Methodists Are Ready to Rebuild.

Methodists of all Southern California are much interested in the coming of Bishop Edwin H. Hughes of San Francisco to this city today. It is his first official visit to Southern California since his elevation to the episcopacy, and the Methodist Social Union has made special efforts to see that his reception is all that it should be.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) NAIROBI (British East Africa) May 27.—Theodore Roosevelt, who is at present the guest of Gov. Jackson of Nairobi, has accepted an invitation to a public banquet to be given here in his honor August 3.

The results of the expedition's hunting trips have been assembled. Mr. Roosevelt has obtained 84 specimens of game of 22 different varieties. With the exception of six specimens they are all for the National Museum at Washington. The naturalists of the party have obtained about 1000 specimens of birds, mammals and snakes.

CUMMOCK PRODUCTION. Henry Van Dyke's "House of Rimmon" Given Dramatic Presentation by Class of Girls.

"The House of Rimmon," Henry Van Dyke's poetic drama, recently presented at the Greek Theater at the State University, was given for the first time in Los Angeles last evening by the senior class of the Cummock School of Expression, assisted by the pupils of the school, and under the direction of the dramatic instructor. It was a talented effort for amateurs, and showed a high degree of professional skill in several particulars.

The familiar Bible story of Naaman, the Syrian, who is told to wash in the waters of the Jordan River to be rid of his leprosy, is the central thread upon which the dramatist has strung a series of climaxes. He makes the high priest of the heathen "House of Rimmon" subject to like passions as other men. He is the villain of the plot.

The original dancing was one of the features of the production. The play was produced under the direction of Miss Jane Butt, and the music for Naaman's song was composed by Miss Fannie Dillon. Miss Myrtle Quillet played the harp at intervals in the drama.

The cast of "The House of Rimmon" was as follows: Benhadad, King of Damascus, Esther O. Allen; Rezon, high priest of the heathen, Helen E. Bryan; Sabaladin, a noble of Damascus, Emily M. Standish; Rakha, Zella A. Wood; Hazael, Minerva Bussell; Iadon, Esther O. Allen; courtiers of Damascus, Shumakin, the King's Pool, Gertrude D. Workman; Naaman, captain of the army of Damascus, Mary E. Stevens; Ruth, a captive maid of Israel, Ruth L. Cadden; Tarsai, wife of Naaman, Helen E. Bryan; Shamun, Ruth Robertson; Nabta, Eileen Kreimer (attendants of Tarsai); soldiers, Mabel H. Burtner, Florence Herndon, Hazel La Croix, Marion H. Norris; envoys, Louise Draper, Mary M. Lemmon; priests, Amy E. Payne, Irene Ryan; dancing girls, Meri Miller, Lotie E. Lawrence, Ramona Harrod, Helen C. Mansfield.

UNIVERSITY OFFERS ROOM.

Monthly Meetings of Historical Society Will in Future Be Held in Reception Hall.

The Historical Society of Southern California will hereafter hold its monthly meetings at the University of Southern California, the society announced today. The effect was taken at the regular session held last night in the reception hall of the university. President Boardman, on behalf of the university, made the offer to the society.

A number of the professors of the university were invited to the society. With the exception of additional members and the encouragement of the university the historical organization will endeavor to make its meetings more interesting. Prof. Rockwell D. Hunt, read an interesting paper on some aspects of the study of local history. Dr. Hunt emphasized the importance of the study of local history. He spoke also of the increase in the spirit of historical mindedness to study of general history; the value to the reformer and publicist in the interpretation of present problems; the socialization of life, the recognition of the share of the patrimony of the past in the life of the future; and the interpretation of universal history being conditional upon the deduction of local history.

Mr. M. Burton Williamson, vice-president of the society, gave a brief account of the history of the M. S. C. Indians of the San Jacinto reservation, and the present condition of the aborigines.

J. M. Quinn completed the session with an account of the history of the rule of Mexico and Spain. The speaker showed how the Golden State had contributed immensely to the resources to the maintenance and advancement of the whole country.

SENT TO HOSPITAL. Eva Queen, a colored woman about 35 years of age, created a scene on a South Pasadena car yesterday afternoon, by her conduct. The conductor turned the woman over to a patrolman and she was taken to the County Hospital pending an examination into her mental condition.

MUSICAL EVENING PLEASANT. The literary and musical entertainment given by the Young Zionists' Association, at their meeting last night, was a pronounced success. The members and their friends turned out in goodly numbers. The programme was most interesting. The features were introduced by Dr. Adora Myers, Mr. Leo Jacobson, as a vocal entertainer, scored heavily. The readings given by Miss Carolina Abrams were thoroughly enjoyed, as were the vocal selections of Miss Rose Kaplan, and the piano and violin duet played by Miss Lila and Charles Bush. Dancing followed the regular programme.

"FOLKS FROM HOME." Residents of practically every city of importance in Ohio arrived in Los Angeles early yesterday morning on a special train of eight cars over the Santa Fe, en route to San Francisco, Portland and the Seattle Exposition. The visitors were welcomed by local members of the Ohio Society, all of whom found "folks from home" among the excursionists. The day was spent in sightseeing, which there will be in their cars last night. The train will leave for the north tonight.

SWELLS ENDOWMENT. A. J. Wallace presented the University of Southern California with a personal check for $10,000 yesterday. The check was for the Swells Endowment fund. The gift was entirely unexpected, although he has given freely to the university and is actively interested in upholding the endowment fund of the college.

AMONG the many articles of special interest for Memorial Day, to appear in the coming number of The Times Sunday Magazine, are "The Boy Scouts," by John W. Wainwright, with eight portraits of famous scouts who have served the Civil War; "Civil War Pictures," by Rosa Jacobs, also fully illustrated.

THE weekly Inquestariat Hotel Clerk will shut about summer vacations in The Times Sunday Magazine for the coming Sunday.

MAY HAVE PERISHED. Japanese Missing: Their Burro Wanderers into Camp With Half-Bucket of Blood on Back.

SALTON, May 27.—José Buente, a widely known desert trapper, has been engaged by Japanese at Nogales to go in search of two Japs who are supposed to have perished on the desert in the Imperial Valley section. One of the missing men in M. Maruki, and another I. Hayamori. Their countrymen, both at Nogales and Los Angeles, have raised a substantial fund to pay Buente for his trouble.

It is learned here that the two Japs left Nogales a month ago with two burros, packed for a long jaunt across the Yuma desert in search of work among the new agricultural lands of Arizona and Imperial. They had worked for Sam Lee, American Consul at Nogales, who gave Masuki a splendid recommendation.

Last Saturday one of the burros wandered into Avalon, a small railroad station on the Southern Pacific, three miles from Yuma. On the animal's pack was a half-bucket of blood, and some cooked meat identified as burro meat. The belief is that the two Japs had become lost on the desert, killed one of the burros, catching its blood to quench their thirst, and that they have become demoralized and probably have perished.

FOR ORPHANS. The Elks have arranged to give a free entertainment tonight to all orphan children of the city and the boys of the McKinley Industrial Home at the Fair's fireworks exhibition at Fiesta Park. Special cars will take the youngsters to the place.

General health is better than for some time past.

"For several years," says Mr. Turk, "I have suffered from stomach trouble. I was in a badly weakened condition. After eating I would feel bloated, and in pain and discomfort for several hours. An ailment which would come over me, and I had no energy nor ambition whatever. This condition continued for a long time, although I took treatment from several good physicians and tried a number of patent remedies without relief."

"On reading of Mr. Cooper's theory I became convinced that he was right, and procured several bottles of his New Discovery preparation, in order to test his claims. It afforded prompt relief, and when I had taken three bottles, my trouble had disappeared and I was feeling like a different man. To make my restoration sure, I took two more bottles of the New Discovery, and I have experienced no pain or distress in that time, although I eat anything I wish."

"The medicine also relieved me of chronic constipation and piles, the latter having bothered me for many years. Cooper's New Discovery is a wonderful preparation and I recommend it to anyone suffering from stomach trouble."

Cooper's New Discovery is sold in Los Angeles at the Owl Drug Store.

EDUCATION IS NOT PRACTICAL.

SAN BERNARDINO.
Largo Sum Expended Annually to

Who, by Nature, Should Be Instructed How to Work With Their Hands, He Says.

SAN BERNARDINO, May 27.—That the day of the San Bernardino High School on its present basis is almost at an end, is the belief of the City Board of Education. "The death warrant was read at a session of the board last night, when Superintendent Conrad made the rather sensational point
that the school, as at present conducted, is not fitting children for the practical life of life."

"We are expending vast sums of money annually," declared Mr. Conrad,
"to fit children for university entry, who by nature should be instructed how to work with their hands. Our girls are crowded through the schools, and prepare them for the life of nature, completely ignoring what
the superintendent stated that the High School as at present conducted is an entirely wrong basis, and that a school of technology, which will fit the child for the practical life of life, is the only basis for the studies that will admit them to the life of the future. The present basis of the school is entirely wrong, and should be changed."

As a starter the board will probably employ Prof. Conrad to change
the present manual work in the schools of Southern Oregon, to take charge of the new technology school, now under construction, and
the school training will be admitted to the manual training work. The board is finally to change the system at the High School, erect a new building of technology, and turn the new school over to High School
superintendent.

"We are expending vast sums of money annually," declared Mr. Conrad,
"to fit children for university entry, who by nature should be instructed how to work with their hands. Our girls are crowded through the schools, and prepare them for
the life of nature, completely ignoring what
the superintendent stated that the High School as at present conducted
is an entirely wrong basis, and
that a school of technology, which will fit the child for the practical
life of life, is the only basis for
the studies that will admit them
to the life of the future. The present basis of the school is entirely wrong, and should be changed."

As a starter the board will probably employ Prof. Conrad to change
the present manual work in the schools of Southern Oregon, to
take charge of the new technology
school, now under construction, and
the school training will be admitted to the manual training work. The board is finally to change the system at the High School, erect
a new building of technology, and
turn the new school over to High School
superintendent.

of Education. "The death warrant
was read at a session of the board

made the rather sensational point
that the school, as at present conducted, is not fitting children for the

After Four Years of Sery

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"For four years my life was a misery to me. I suffered from irregular terrible dragging sensations,
extreme nervousness, and that all over feeling in my stomach. I gave up hope of ever being well
when I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound. Then
I felt as though
new life had been given me, and I am recommending it
to all my friends."

The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has stood the test of years and today is more widely and successfully used than any other female remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration,
after all other means had failed.

If you are suffering from any of these ailments, don't give up hope until you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice
write to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. She has ruled a charge.

CLUB BREAKFAST.

To mark the close of a successful season, the Extemporaneous Drill Club gave a breakfast in the refectory of the Glenwood Mission Inn yesterday noon. The table was set in the form of a hollow square and decorated with pink sweet peas, carnations and ferns. Covers were laid for eighty club members. At the close of the breakfast the president, Mrs. P. T.
Harvey, introduced Dr. Louis Harvey Clark as the toastmaster. The programme of toasts responded to included "Woman's Work," by Mrs. G.
N. Morse; "The Extemporaneous Drill
Club," by Mrs. Mary Lynch; "The Silent Woman," by Mrs. Ida Smith; "The Club of the Future," by Mrs. J. H.
Hill; "The Woman in Extemporaneous Speaking," by Mrs. J. P. Gilmore; and "The Mother," by Mrs. J. H.
Hill. In recognition of her efficient leadership the club members, through the toastmaster, presented a basket of Spanish poppies to Mrs. L. F. Darling, the retiring president.

oranges and twenty-two cars of lemons.

The depression over British Columbia Bay morning has apparently moved eastward, causing a picture to develop over the coast districts of Southern California weather conditions, with a strong cold air mass, with surface fog at some places in the citrus belt. The temperature has dropped to the 50s in the mountains. The conditions above is expected to cause a heavy cloudiness in the afternoon, with the next thirty-six hours, with some spells of clearing weather. It is not indicated for the mountain districts.

CATCH GROCERS AS THEY PASS.

LOCAL ASSOCIATION ENTER-TAINS DELEGATES.

Chamber of Commerce Aids Retailers in Giving Visitors from Eastern Cities, en Route to Portland Convention, High Old Time While They Are in Los Angeles.

About 100 delegates to the annual convention of the National Retail Grocers' Association at Portland, Or., who stopped here en route, were entertained yesterday by the Los Angeles Retail Grocers' Association and Chamber of Commerce.

The delegates from various eastern states arrived Wednesday night. Yesterday morning they were taken on a trolley trip to the beach resorts in three special cars. Stops were made at Hollywood, the Soldiers' Home, Santa Monica, and Ocean Park. The party arrived at Venice about 1 o'clock.

There the delegates had luncheon on the ship Cabrillo, visited the aquarium, bathed in the surf and enjoyed boat rides on the water.

At 4:30 o'clock, returning directly to the city.

A reception was given the visitors at the Chamber of Commerce last night. Several hundred persons, including members of the local grocers' association and the wives of the delegates, J. E. Carr was chairman of the Reception Committee.

J. E. Newberry was the chairman of the evening, and made a brief address in opening the exercises. Addresses of welcome were made by Joseph Scott, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Frank R. Connolly, secretary of the California Retail Grocers' Association.

John A. Green, national secretary, responded on behalf of the delegates. He praised the city and the hospitality of its people.

The delegates will go to Catalina today. Tomorrow evening they will continue their journey northward to Portland.

ERROR ENDS IN DEATH.

Woman, to Quiet Nerves, Swallows Preparation of Strichnine Intended for Killing Gophers.

Mrs. Mary Richkaldt, aged 50 years, died of strichnine poisoning yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Hoeckel, No. 484 East Forty-ninth street.

Some time ago she suffered nervous prostration, and recently additional cares were thrust upon her by the return of a sick son from Arizona.

Yesterday morning she was found lying on a couch, apparently close to death. Upon being questioned she said she had taken strichnine to quiet her nerves.

The coroner was notified, but there still is no inquest.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at the chapel of Cunningham & O'Connor.

BENNETT BALKS.

yesterday, to sign a stipulation to give his deposition at any reasonable time. Among other reasons for not making a deposition at this time the defendant expresses the belief that, in case any poison other than that from pomonine is found in the vital organs, a complaint will be issued charging Bennett with murder, and that the facts elicited from any deposition would be used by the prosecution of Bennett for the alleged murder of his wife and would be in violation of Bennett's constitutional right to testify or not, as he might desire.

Another objection raised is that Bennett's attorneys demanded that he be allowed to name a competent, worthy and reliable analytical chemist to be present at the examination of the vital organs, so the matter might be fair and impartial, but that Asst. Dist. Atty. McComas declined to allow such chemist to be present with the experts engaged by the District Attorney's office.

Going still further, Bennett, through his attorney, alleges that the District Attorney's office has offered to deliver to Royston, the defendant in the Bennett damage suit, information as to the result of the analysis of the vital organs.

Furthermore, it is averred that it would be unfair and unjust for him to be asked to give his deposition when it is openly charged that a prosecution for alleged murder will be instituted if possible, and which was to be encouraged by the defendant to the damage suit.

Asst. Dist. Atty. McComas laughed yesterday at the insinuation that his office was working in connection with the counsel for Royston in the investigation of the cause of Mrs. Bennett's death. He would not divulge the source of the information that led to the disinterment of Mrs. Bennett's remains.

"We simply want to know the facts in this case," he said. "When it is reported that some other cause of pomonine poisoning is responsible for the death of Mrs. Bennett, we had the body disinterred. We engaged two reliable chemists to make the necessary analysis. They were recommended by the officials of the medical school of the University of Southern California and by others of high standing.

"We declined to allow an expert representing Bennett to be present, as we had a right to do. Poison are as we seek. If it should be found that no further investigation is warranted by the report of the experts, the case will be dropped."

NO BEGGARS ALLOWED.

By order of Chief of Police Dillman, the downtown streets were cleared of beggars and mendicants yesterday, and heretofore this class will be kept in the outer districts. A new boundary has been set by the police. From Main to Hill streets and from Temple to Seventh, the forbidden section extends. Beggars will not be allowed on Seventh street as far west as the post-office, and will not be permitted to take stands at any of the railroad or street railway stations. Many of them had been annoying and a general clean-up resulted.

WRECKING IS STARTED.

Famous Old Hotel Being Torn Down at Santa Monica—Contract for Handsome Residence.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.) SANTA MONICA, May 27.—The wrecking of the old Hotel Arcadia building was commenced today by the Whiting company of Los Angeles. The work will be done with great care and much of the heavy material saved.

One contractor estimated that it would cost $4000 to demolish the building. The timbers are all heavy and well seasoned, the dimensions being greater than those found in Frankish construction in these days.

The Arcadia was built in 1896 by the Pacific Improvement Company of this city. It was a holding corporation of the Southern Pacific.

The property has been purchased, along with an adjoining lot, by Carl F. Schader, who has organized and incorporated the Schader Seaside Terrace Company. It has been taken the public into his confidence, but there are visions of scores of fine bungalows after the style of the Kew-Forest group, and modern bath-houses, congregated dining hall and other things that go to make up a modern seaside resort and watering place.

W. M. Ketchum has closed the contract for the erection of a handsome $5000 residence in the Palisades, on San Vicente boulevard, near the home of Roy Jones and Bishop Conaty.

The team achieved in Frankish construction in these days.

RUSH WORK ON BATH.

Contractor Trying to Finish Avalon Plunge Within Specified Time.

Fishermen's Luck Good.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.) AVALON, May 27.—A special effort is being made here by A. Grant to complete the new $30,000 bath-house, located on the old site facing the Grand View Hotel, fifteen days before the time stated in the contract.

Twelve more carpenters have been put to work on the interior. The plumbers arrived yesterday and an extra gang of men commenced work at the planing mill. It is understood that the building will be ready June 15.

GRAY FISHING PARTY.

The first fish taken from the new wharf was caught this morning by C. Fletcher. It was a twenty-seven-pound white sea bass and was landed in twenty-five minutes.

A record catch of nine white sea bass was made today by Dr. J. V. Kirkpatrick of Eucalyptus, Mich., while fishing off Abalone Point. In addition to the bass, Dr. Kirkpatrick caught four yellowtail and two barracuda. He fished from the launch Rival.

The average weight of each fish was twenty-three pounds. C. E. Johnson of Los Angeles, who fished with Dr. Kirkpatrick, also had good luck.

Announcement was made today that J. M. Beck of Pasadena had been appointed wharf superintendent. Duties are to collect wharfage tolls for the Freshwater's Improvement Association.

AZUSA.

The San Gabriel Canyon is ideal, and good at Camp Rison, enjoying both it and fine fishing. Among the arrivals are Rev. Charles F. Richardson, Azusa; Dr. Charles F. Swenson, Great Falls, C. D.; Rev. J. E. Milbank, R. E. Leonard and brother, Dr. J. H. Utley and H. J. Dennis, all of Los Angeles; and C. W. Buchanan, E. Wilcox and Charles W. Bell of Pasadena.
